Citadines South Kensington
35A Gloucester Road, London SW7 4PL

The studio, studio executive and one bedroom serviced apartments available can sleep from a single guest to a family of four. Stylish, contemporary and spacious, the modern accommodation includes fully equipped kitchen, en suite bathroom and weekly housekeeping service.

For accommodation near The Royal Marsden Hospital and Royal Brompton Hospital, Citadines South Kensington is ideal. Both hospitals can be reached in less than 10 minutes in a taxi, so for medical stays in a home from home environment, the apartments are perfect for rest and recuperation. If you or your family need accommodation before or after a hospital stay, the flats are available for both short stays and extended stays.

The Citadines South Kensington serviced apartments offer a wide range of handy amenities, such as complimentary high speed internet access, air conditioning and wake up service. Furthermore, dry cleaning, breakfast and daily cleaning can all be arranged (charges apply).
