This building was once the home of the world famous author William Somerset Maugham (writer of ‘Of Human Bondage’ and ‘The Razor’s Edge’), there is a blue plaque on the exterior wall commemorating this fact. Conveniently located near to Piccadilly, Green Park underground station (Jubilee, Piccadilly & Victoria lines) and a short stroll to the open spaces of Green Park and Hyde Park. It is easily accessible by foot to Oxford Street and Piccadilly Circus, and by tube to the surrounding districts of central London.

Shaw House has a resident house manager and a secure video entry phone system for complete peace of mind at all times. The apartments are decorated in a classic English manner and the rooms are spacious with high ceilings. There is no air-conditioning in the apartments however portable air-conditioning units can be provided at a small charge. Amenities in the residence include Wi-Fi internet access; television with freeview; fully furnished kitchens; washer-dryers and daily maid service (Monday-Friday). There is lift access to all floors in this property.