

Native Aldgate East

75 Wentworth Street, London E1 7TD,

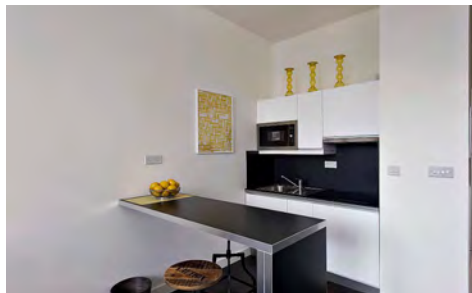

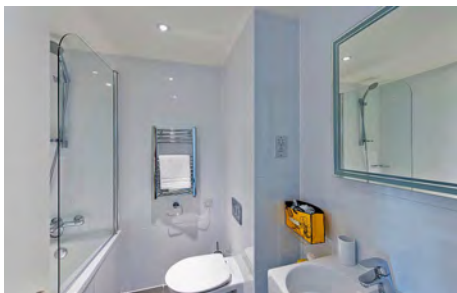

In the immediate neighbourhood are two very famous London Markets – Petticoat Lane – a Sunday market selling predominantly clothes and Old Spitalfields Market which is open 7 days per week with special emphasis on Thursday, Friday and the weekends. Try the Polo Bar in Bishopsgate – the café that never closes – it doesn't have a door!

Native Aldgate East has recently opened after an extensive refurbishment schedule and offers one bedroom and two bedroom apartments all stylishly fitted with modern kitchens and well-designed bathrooms. All the apartments are fitted with Freeview television and Wi Fi is available throughout the building. Some of the apartments have the added benefit of having a private balcony with a view of the Gherkin. Native Aldgate East is perfect for the experienced independent traveller as there is no reception on site. Guests checking-into an apartment are supplied with a special code for self-check-in to their home in central London.
