West End One by Q

Oxygen Bar, 18 Irving Street, London WC2H 7AT

West End One by Q is located in the heart of the West End, nestled in a small pedestrianised street running between Leicester Square and Charing Cross Road. The nearest underground station is Leicester Square which is on both the Piccadilly and Northern lines networking across the west end and city of London. Chinatown is on the doorstep as are many restaurants, cafes and pubs.

This tasteful period property has been lovingly renovated whilst still retaining some of the original features such as the stylish fireplaces. Because of the type of property this is there is unfortunately no lift – the apartments are reached by way of stairs to all floors. West End one by Q has a portfolio of 6 one bedroom apartments. These refurbished apartments are open plan with a private bathroom.

All the one bedroom apartments at West End One by Q have a fully fitted kitchen complete with washer dryer. Furthermore, Q also provide iron and board, a welcome pack and The White Company toiletries (on arrival). Free Wi Fi comes as standard and the apartments all have a LED TV and DVD player.
